

IntelliCom Security Bulletin - ISFR-4404-0007- Critical

Vulnerability in NetBiterConfig software could allow remote code execution

Release date

December 16, 2009

Last updated

December 16, 2009

Platform/Product

NetbiterConfig utility

Summary

A critical vulnerability had been identified in NetBiterConfig utility. The vulnerability could allow remote code execution if an affected system receives a specially crafted UDP message when the NetBiterConfig utility is running.

Recommendation / Solution

IntelliCom recommends all users of NetBiterConfig utility version 1.3.0 and earlier versions upgrade to the newest version 1.3.1 (or higher) by downloading it from <http://support.intellicom.se>

Known Issues

None

Affected Software

Version 1.3.0 and earlier of NetBiterConfig utility.